

The Nasr Priestly Home

The Nasr Priestly Home was founded in 1568 A.D. It was built on caves and cisterns. The home was demolished in 2003 to widen the main street. It was rebuilt by the V. Rev. Fr. Constantine and Khouria Sharon Nasr in 2007 in honor of the 9 generations of priests who served in Taybeh and in the United States.

The Grotto of the 12 Apostles is located below the street level which contains the map of Palestine in mosaic.

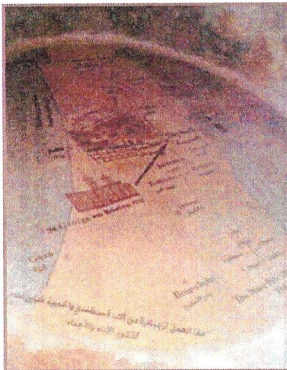

The Oil Cestern is dedicated to Economos Joseph, the first priest on the Nasr Family Tree.

The Holy altar was built on a column given by the late Economos Tewfic Nasr and Economos Daoud Khouri from the church of St. George dated to the Justinian period, 5th Century. Dedicated in memory of Economos Zacharia and Khouria Nasra Nasr.

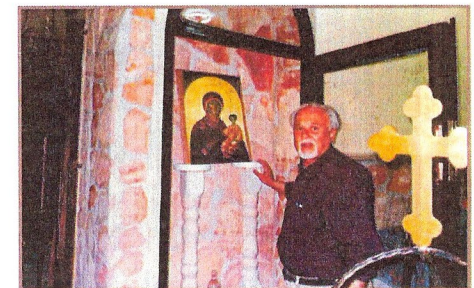

The map of Palestine depicts the original picture of the Nasr Priestly Home, the Church of St. George, the Church of ElKhader, and the Yakoub-Eldeek Family Tree.

The Chapel of the Cross of Many Nations adorn the interior wall in honor of all the clergy who served the Christian community of Taybeh.

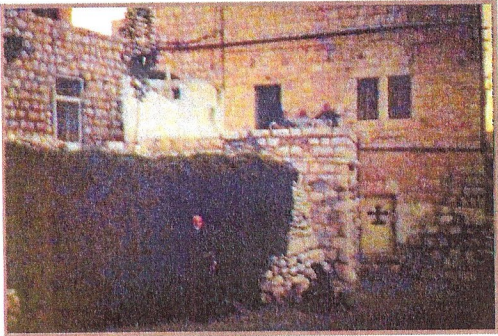

The Shrine to the Mother of God, SayedDat ElTaybeh, contains an icon made at the monestary of Sayednaya, Syria and is placed in memory of Anna Slemon, mother of Khouria Sharon Nasr, and Aunt Badea Dahdal, sister of Economos Zacharia Nasr.

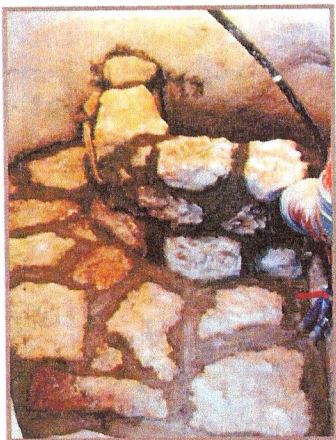

The Nasr Priestly Home
